Hello!

Being so far from college, the Events TEAm is 1938328474% sure that you missed out wonderful emails, events, and most importantly the pipping hot TEA that we serve.

Jokes apart, as we start one more semester and one more academic year (at least virtually) it gives me immense pleasure to announce "5ft. Apart", SSLA's own club initiation festival.

5ft. Apart aims to be an all-inclusive festival that aims at reintroducing clubs, cells, and teams that work together to form the foundation of Student Activities at SSLA.

A 2-week long festival (Yes, it's a 2WEEK LONG FESTIVAL from August 10 to 22) aims at creating a virtual space for all batches to interact, have fun and most importantly to ignite the batch spirit (YES WE ARE HAVING INTERBATCH GAMES), all while maintaining social distance (5ft Apart is the new in 🤝) and being 182718181 kms away from each other and our beloved third floor.

Apart from the usual, this year we are glad to have the publications and cells on board with us who will be having informal discussion rounds on certain themes in the latter half of the festival. Called The Third Floor™, these discussions on very informal (yet appropriate) themes aim at breaking the ice between the first years and the rest of the college and help them accommodate well, make friends, and most importantly to help them have fun the "SSLA" way.

I hope you all are very on board with the idea and super excited to have this festival week.

WE HOPE TO SEE A MASSIVE PARTICIPATION FROM ACROSS BATCHES!

The schedule will be sent, once finalized. All the links will also be shared then. But rest assured, it's going to be a great festival of learning and new opportunities. But, @Batch2024 we cannot wait to see you!

HOPE TO SEE YOU SOON!

Lots and lots of love and virtual hugs,

Symbiosis School for Liberal Arts 5 Ft. Apart

Date: August 25, 2020

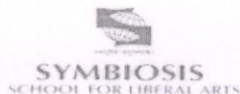

Every new academic year, the hallways of college are filled with excitement for the initiation week festivities. The usually week-long celebrations give the incoming batch a taste of everything SSLA has to offer. While there was no decorating the hallways and stalls in the Common Area, the Events Team was determined to keep the spirit of celebration alive with a virtual fest. Inspired by the chronological theme traditionally followed for the fest and the current situation, the event was aptly named 5ft Apart. This year, the fest lasted two weeks from the 10th to the 21st of August and was held after class hours to ensure maximum participation.

The Student Council, Sports Council, every sports team, cell and publication had timeslots during the fest to interact with Batch 2024 and host activities for them. The Orator's Club planned four questions for the new batch, all related to something that they love - a beverage, colour, movie and a feeling. They wanted the students to tell everyone why they said what they said and in the due process, they discovered their abilities as an orator. The Art Club conducted a fun origami activity and guided everyone on how to make paper jumping frogs from scrap papers. For their interaction, the Dance Club members pieced together a short and sweet performance for the new batch after which they hosted a "Guess the Iconic Dance Move" game where all the batches actively participated. Similarly the Karoke Club conducted a game of "Guess the Song Based on Categories," creating a joyous atmosphere and reflected the club's motto of having fun. Bandemonium's interaction involved a game of "Song Association" between the batches. Evergreen's session consisted of a little wildlife quiz - facts about the lovely albeit endangered biodiversity of the world, and a little coffee painting session with relaxing music followed by a Q&A session. The Photography Club held a surprise photography competition. The games and interaction had Batch 2024 excited to join the clubs and become part of their activities.

Hello!

Hope y'all are doing fine!

As some of you may have already heard, Rahat Indori Sahab unfortunately passed away very recently on 11 August due to Covid. He is known for his phenomenal contributions to Urdu Poetry (ghazals and shayri) and more popularly for his lyrics for bollywood songs like "Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata hai", "Ae Dil Humein Itna Bata" and "Rabbe Re Ralli" among others.

We're glad to announce that Professor Shahid Khot will be conducting a session on the life of Rahat Indori Sahab and his contributions to Urdu Poetry. Professor Khot has previously taught courses in Urdu at SSLA. He will be introducing the poetic forms of ghazals and shayari and some of Indori Sahab's works along the same will be discussed.

More importantly, the medium of instruction will be Hindi/spoken Urdu, but the language will be fairly simple and Shahid Sir will provide clarifications wherever needed.

The Session will be conducted on 10 September at 17:30 PM IST and will go on for about one and a half hour, inclusive of a question answer session. We'll be sending out a meeting link for the same one day prior to the session. Meanwhile, fill up your name on the sheet to sign up!

Hope to see y'all on Thursday!

An Invitation from SSLA Presents

SSLA Presents <sslapresents@ssla.edu.in>
 To: ananya.dutta@ssla.edu.in

Tue, Mar 30, 2021 at 12:20 PM

Dear Ananya,

I hope this email finds you well.

I write to you on behalf of the SSLA Presents team to invite you to our virtual get-together on the 4th of April (Sunday) at 11:30 am to both discuss and celebrate the release of our two plays, Not Just Stories, and An Ally of the People.

Creating art has never been easy but in a world made distant by the pandemic it was doubly challenging. As we could not come together to make theatre, we had to come up with new ways to engage with a new form. A form that we were not sure about. We have learned and grown in this process with a reworked perspective on the political and the personal. An essential, continuing part of this process relies on your feedback and criticism, giving us the ability to converse with each other on the nature of this reworking, along with the potential areas for change and improvement. As such, we would love to have you at our event to hear how you felt about various parts of the play, if you would be willing to share your critical feedback regarding them. The event will also feature the music created for our plays by our wonderful team, for your listening pleasure, along with a couple of surprises we've been holding on to for the past few weeks.

In many regards, it would be hard to imagine SSLA Presents being what it is today without your constant support and guidance, and we hope you will join us as we spend a small morning celebrating it.

Do confirm if you will be able to make it to the event. We look forward to hearing from you.

Warm Regards,
 Suchetana Banerjee,
 on behalf of SSLA Presents.

Release of plays by SSLA Presents

Date: April 5, 2021

SSLA Presents however, SSLA's annual theatre initiative, found a way to work around the problems of being unable to stage a live event during the pandemic by offering an auditory theatrical experience to their audiences. They released two audio plays, titled, "An Ally of the People" and "Not Just Stories," currently available on YouTube and Spotify.

The director of the plays, Prof. Suchetana Banerjee and the students involved in putting them together, spoke about their experiences and challenges during the production process. This was followed by opening up the forum to questions and comments from the audience.

Hello guys,

Please find the updated game details and the interbatch schedule starting on 9th April, 2021.--> BYOB 2021 ScheduleTo sign up for the same, please fill in your details here: BYOB 2021 Signups

Please carefully go through all the rules and sign up for the games which interest you. We have retained the OG games and added some new games for this year.

1. Charades/Dumb Charades- Zoom/Meet

A number between 1-10 will be chosen randomly for each team. The chosen number will determine the genre of the movie. After which, a movie will be given to the person acting with the help of a random generator.

You will get 1 point for guessing the movie within 120 seconds and one extra point for guessing it under 60 seconds.

2. Pictionary- Zoom

Taking turns, each team draws a picture of a word chosen from a random word generator. There will be four rounds with increasing levels of difficulties.

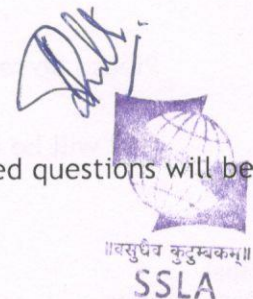

The team with the most points at the end is the winner.

3. Trivia- Zoom/Meet

The quiz will be held on Zoom/Meet.

There will be a total of five rounds. Each question will be worth 2 points, passed questions will be worth 1 point.

Round 1- General Knowledge- 15 seconds to answer each question

SSLA

Round 2- Sports- 15 seconds to answer each questions

Round 3- Geography- 15 seconds to answer each question

Round 4- Picture round- 15 seconds to answer each question

Round 5- Rapid fire- 10 seconds to answer each question. No questions passed.

4. Read my lips- Zoom

To play, one participant will mute the mic, and then speak a word or phrase. The other players must try to guess the word or phrase correctly. Players have one minute to figure out the message. The phrase will be given by a member of the sports council.

You will not be allowed to give any hand signals like charades. Try and enunciate your words clearly. The team with the most guessed phrases will win.

5. Guess the Song- Zoom

The song genre will be randomly chosen from a spin wheel. A song will be played for 15-20 seconds. The participants can guess the song's name for a point and the artist for another.

6. Codenames- Zoom/meet

The game board consists of 25 randomly generated words.
There are two teams: red and blue.

Of the 25 words, nine belong to the team randomly selected to go first and eight belong to the other team. There are also seven neutral words and a bomb word.

Each team has a spymaster that knows exactly which words belong to their team and the opposing team, which words are neutral, and which is the bomb. The objective of the game is for the spymasters to send clues to their field operatives (the other players on their team) to help them decode all of their team's words without uncovering the bomb. The team that decodes all of their words first wins; if a team uncovers the bomb, the other team wins.

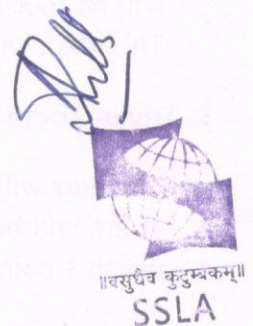

The spymaster will have to think of one-word clues which relate to the bunch of words displayed on the screen. The rest of the team will have to discuss amongst themselves and select the word/s which relate to the hint given by their spymaster.

The spymasters will also have an option to select the number of words which relate to their hint.

I look forward to seeing you all at the interbatch games this weekend :)

Please do reach out to me if you have any questions or suggestions.

P.S I will be updating the BYOB schedule upon receiving more signups.

Symbiosis School for Liberal Arts Inter-batch Virtual Tournament

Date: April 12, 2021

The Interbatch Weekend, 'Bring Your Own Batch 2021', was organized from 9th to 11th April 2021 by the Sports Council. After a stream of assignments and submissions, the idea was to get everyone from the SSLA community together (albeit virtually) to indulge in a relaxed weekend of fun and games. The virtual context meant that sports-based events were modified to innovative indoor games instead.

The four batches competed with each other in a series of events - Read my Lips, Guess the Song, Charades, Trivia, Pictionary, and Codenames - on Zoom meetings.

Students participating in the Guess the Song game organised during the tournament.

Hello, everyone!

As is tradition for It Could Be Verse and SSLA, once again this year we're hoping to conduct the week-long celebration of poetry and its engagement with various aspects of human life - The Verse-T Fest! A week full of fun games, activities, workshops and speaker sessions, The Verse-T fest begins on Monday, the 12th of April and ends on 18th, the Sunday. We're really looking forward to your participation, as that is what makes it the amazing festival it is each year! Here is a list of events that we've got lined up for you over the week. So take some time off work, sign up for these and show up to have the verse-t time of your life! (We always mean that in a good way, we hope you're used to the pun by now.)

1. The Verse-T Has Happened - A grand whodunnit mystery set to open the verse-t week of the year! Organized by Bhavya, Sandhi and Angela.
2. Poetry Pharmacy - To cure you of your lockdown blues, we'll find you poems and set you loose! Organized by Pranav, Diviya and the rest of the team!
3. Mad Libs - Words are being stolen from our poems! Help us complete our incomplete poems, and restore them to their original form...or into something entirely new! A fun activity organized by Riddhi and Diviya.
4. Haiku Workshop - Learn to write haikus with our very own in-house haikubois Rajath and Megha.
5. Origami Workshop - If you think folding paper and creating art is not poetry, we're here to prove you wrong! A session of paper crafts and creativity. Bipasha and Angela insist on bringing square sheets of paper
6. Gateway to Ghazals - Learn about ghazals, their relationships to other forms of western poetry and their various beautiful interpretations. Conducted by Uday Chandra, a noteworthy actor, musician and instructor.
7. Fun Presentations - be it about vada pavs or the history of glitter, we're here to talk about the most intriguing things - even candy that is bitter! Organized by Kartik, Raj and Sandhi.
8. The Rhyme Among Us - A classic game with a poetic twist, to find the impostors within our midst. (Bring your phones with Among Us installed, bring another device to join the call!)
9. On Art and Community - A fun workshop by Roshni Raheja, with activities that convince you of the ties between community and the art that it helps produce.
10. Cast Your Character - An evening of mingling with your favourite/least favourite characters, watch them come alive from the confines of mere pages. Conducted by Raj and Shruti.
11. Something on Those Lines - A session on close reading of poems conducted by Pramod Menon. (He named the session, isn't it brilliant?)
12. Generative Poetry - Sumithra Surendralal looks at the close relationship between technology, mathematics, constraints and poetry. A very intriguing session that you shouldn't miss!
13. Film Screenings - Apart from Dead Poet Society (which is our staple tearjerker every year), we shall be screening two other movies of your choice during the week! Do show up for a fun, filmy night!
14. Open Mic - Again, as is tradition, we end the week with an open mic that is (as the name suggests) open to all, so be sure to attend the instagram live on the 18th!

Do take a look at the sign up sheets attached to this mail to sign up for some of the events! The link to the same is here -

Verse-T Fest

Date: April 19, 2021

SSLA's poetry club, It Could Be Verse's Verse-T Fest organized a week-long festival with a mix of activities that included Haiku workshops, interactions with experts, online games, workshops and lectures. The final day of the fest began with a session by Prof. Pramod Menon titled 'Something Along Those Lines'. The session focused on the close reading of poetry and critically analysing the different layers of poetry by Yeats, Shakespeare and Byron. The second session of the day was on Generative Poetry by Dr. Sumithra Surendralal. This session included discussions on the close relationship between technology, mathematics and scientific restraints in the generation of poetry. The day ended with the traditional Verse-T Fest Open Mic, hosted by Bhavya Jha (Batch 2024). The closing ceremony was marked by an evening of fifteen poets, singers and rappers showcasing their talent on the virtual stage. The event was streamed live on Instagram as well, where a large audience gathered to enjoy performances on social issues, childhood and recitations of famous poems.

Red Carpet 2021

Date: June 14, 2021

As the academic year 2020-21 came to an end, SSLA organized its much-awaited second virtual Red Carpet. The past year was unpredictable for all of us as we tried to acquaint ourselves with 'the new normal', but the Red Carpet brought the entire SSLA fraternity together for a spectacular evening set up by the Events Coordinator and the Organising Committee. The theme for this year was 'Nostalgia: SSLA Through the Years', which also went well with SSLA completing ten years since its commencement.

The Director's Report 2021 by Dr. Anita Patankar was much-anticipated and emphasised the remarkable achievements of the faculty as well as the students throughout the year. The Academic and Non-Academic awards were presented to students across all four batches who had excelled in various scholastic as well as co-curricular fields. CJIDS, the peer-reviewed research publication of SSLA, released Volume V of their journal and the Yearbook Team also released Chapter VII. All the clubs put up performances showcasing their talents to the wider community.
